Free Trial Class

We insist that all potential new students take part in one free trial class. This is to give not only the child the chance to see if our classes are for them, but also for you to check out our facilities, ask any questions and for us to be sure that Martial Arts training is right for your child at this time.

Our full time centre is kitted out especially for kids Martial Arts training

If you would like to book a class, please see the information on the next page.

Prices

Our monthly fee for Little Dragons is £33 for any one class a week. There is also a one time enrolment fee of £45, this includes a full uniform, belt and lifetime license fees. We do not charge an annual renewal fee.

Booking a trial

Please choose a day/time from the list on the previous page, drop us an email to confirm and we will advise as to availability. If available, we will book you a space and confirm any additional information for the day.

During the trial

We require a parent or legal guardian in a position to make a decision on any future classes remain present during the trial session. If the child participating decides to sit out during the first few minutes of class, we will invite them to watch the session rather than attempt to force them to participate. There will be a participation form to complete prior to the trial starting, please arrive at least 5 minutes before the class to fill out this form. Please note - late arrivals will be asked to watch in the interest of student safety.

Joining

After the class, should you wish to enroll your child in our academy, we will provide you with an iPad to complete your membership. Please ensure you bring your bank details with you to set this up. There's no pressure to join if your child doesn't enjoy their trial, however, if you leave without joining, we can't reserve a space and may offer it to another person for a trial.
